Trial Court Case # 1KE-17-00279CI

1. An appeal of the final order/judgment distributed on 12/24/18 has been filed in the Supreme Court. Attorneys whose names and addresses are correct on this notice need not file an entry of appearance. All documents filed by a party appearing unrepresented by counsel, shall include an address at which that party can be served.

2. In accordance with AR 204(g), all parties to the trial court proceedings when the final order/judgment was entered are parties to the appeal. A party who files a notice of appeal, whether separately or jointly, is an appellant under these rules. All other parties are deemed to be appellees, regardless of their status in the trial court. An appellee may elect at any time not to participate in the appeal by filing and serving a notice of non-participation.

3. The trial court appeals division shall prepare and forward the record on or before 5/28/19. Please transmit all trial court exhibits. If transcripts are not being prepared at public expense, it is the responsibility of appellant(s) to ensure that all transcripts designated by any party are received by the court on or before 5/25/2019. The appellant's transcriber must file one unbound condensed copy and an electronic version of the transcript in the form and format prescribed by the Manual of Transcript Procedures. The manual is available at the following website: <http://www.courtrecords.alaska.gov/webdocs/forms/tf-410.pdf>

4. The caption in this case will be Bradley Stewart v. Katie Chapel.

5. All parties should be aware of the provisions of Rule 512.5(a) and (b)(1) in submitting pleadings and other paperwork in this case. In all CINA appeals and domestic cases that were confidential in the superior court, the excerpt of record must be submitted in a confidential envelope.

6. If required by AR 512.5(b)(2), all parties are directed to submit all briefs and future appellate pleadings using the children's/parents initials, or pseudonyms, instead of their full names.

7. In accordance with AR 218(i) and 503.5(b)(3)(a), no routine motions for extensions of time may be filed. All motions shall comply with AR 503.5(c) and should indicate whether or not an opposition is expected.

8. Appellate Rule 212(a)(2) requires that parties file an original and one copy of each brief. Parties should inform the clerk's office if no appellee's brief or reply brief will be filed.

9. This case may be subject to the requirements of Appellate Rule 221.

× On or before 5/28/19, the attorneys for all parties to this appeal must discuss settlement as required by Appellate Rule 221. The first attorney listed below is responsible for arranging the settlement discussion. Within seven days after the discussion, counsel for the parties must file an appropriate notice if the parties reach settlement of any issues. If no settlement is reached, counsel for the parties must file a certificate stating that the attorneys have discussed settlement with knowledge of their clients. A form notice/certificate is enclosed with this opening notice. This form is also available on the appellate court web site at http://www.appellate.courts.state.ak.us/notice_cert221.pdf.

□ This case is exempt from the settlement discussion requirement under Appellate Rule 221. Appellant must file the form notice/certificate enclosed by 5/28/19, however, Part 3 need not be completed.
